

RECCo Procurement Notice for 2025

The Retail Energy Code Company (“RECCo”) is not a public body within the meaning of the public procurement legislation, including the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 and the Procurement Act 2023.

As from 1st March 2025, should RECCo advertises contracts via the UK e-notification service Find a Tender, it does so on a voluntary basis and does not undertake any obligation to comply with the procurement legislation. When doing so, RECCo reserves its rights in full to adapt or step outside the procedures in the procurement legislation as RECCo considers necessary.

The procedure RECCo commits to in respect of any individual procurement will be explained in the relevant tender documentation.

Our procurement activities will continue to be guided by the following commercial principles:

- We procure services through open market competition wherever possible and when it is economic to do so. We procure services that are value for money, scalable and adaptable. We procure services using data-driven decisions. We always seek to deliver operational and cost efficiencies.
- We always hold our service providers account able for their service delivery obligations
